Always carry some drinking water - or at the Dawsons Point Ridge junction there are toilets and barbecue facilities. A boardwalk, from the picnic area at North Bay to the small rocky cove known as Old Gulch.

Looking for a short level walk, mostly along a timber boardwalk, from the picnic area at North Bay to the small rocky cove known as Old Gulch.

BEGIN AT THE BOATSHEDS
This track commences opposite the boatsheds on Lagoon Road. A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.

The Mount Eliza walk starts at the picnic area at North Bay and climbs to the summit of Mount Eliza, 147m above sea level. The track is very muddy and steep.

Every 100m along this one.

A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views.

The Stevens Reserve loop track is a walk that starts opposite the boatsheds on Lagoon Road. The track is relatively flat, narrow in sections and is interspersed with tree roots. Interpretive signs along the way make this an informative and interesting walk.

The track leads initially to Smoking Tree Ridge. From this point you can either turn off to Boat Harbour or you can continue the ascent to the Goat House Cave. The track up to the Goat House Cave is very steep, and is a demanding climb. The track is narrow and is interspersed with tree roots and rocks.

This section of the climb is interspersed with tree roots, rocks, and vegetation and leaf litter. A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views.

The Clear Place: (3.2km) return Class 2

The Transom Hill: (3.2km) Class 3

The Stevens Reserve loop track is a walk that starts opposite the boatsheds on Lagoon Road. The track is relatively flat, narrow in sections and is interspersed with tree roots. Interpretive signs along the way make this an informative and interesting walk.

The track leads initially to Smoking Tree Ridge. From this point you can either turn off to Boat Harbour or you can continue the ascent to the Goat House Cave. The track up to the Goat House Cave is very steep, and is a demanding climb. The track is narrow and is interspersed with tree roots and rocks.

NORTH WE ARE RECOMMENDED TO TAKE A GUIDE LICENSED BY THE LORD HOWE ISLAND BOARD. Ask your lodge proprietor for contact details for licensed guides. In preparation for this walk, ensure you have adequate footwear and clothing. Your guide can also advise of any extra precautions, particularly relating to weather conditions.

Central Track to Boat Harbour via Motton Bird Point Lookout, and Rocky Run: (3.1km) Class 4

Boat Harbour. From Boat Harbour you can return along the coastal track or branch off at Rocky Run Creek and continue over Smoking Tree Ridge to the southern end of Lagoon Road. Follow Lagoon Road north up the hill past Capella Lodge and the golf course to your original starting point.

This walk commences on Lagoon Road near the turn-off to the airport. It follows the eastern coastline. The track is narrow in parts and is interspersed with tree roots, rocks, fallen vegetation and leaf litter.

Approximately 1.4 km along the route, a side-track descends a short distance to a lookout platform with views across to Motton Bird Point. The main track leads to Rocky Run Creek. Here you can branch off and follow the creek to the ocean, or you can continue the walk to Boat Harbour.

Be sure you find your own way along this one.

INTERMEDIATE HILL: (2.3km) Class 5

An easy, flat walk along a timber boardwalk, from the picnic area at North Bay to the small rocky cove known as Old Gulch.

An easy, flat walk along an old service road. This walk commences on Lagoon Road near the turn-off to the airport. It follows the eastern coastline. The track is narrow in parts and is interspersed with tree roots, rocks, fallen vegetation and leaf litter.

Approximately 1.4 km along the route, a side-track descends a short distance to a lookout platform with views across to Motton Bird Point.

The main track leads to Rocky Run Creek. Here you can branch off and follow the creek to the ocean, or you can continue the walk to Boat Harbour.

From Boat Harbour you can return along the coastal track or branch off at Rocky Run Creek and continue over Smoking Tree Ridge to the southern end of Lagoon Road. Follow Lagoon Road north up the hill past Capella Lodge and the golf course to your original starting point.

Another option is to take a stroll along Lagoon Road. A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.

SOUTHERN WALKS

This is an easy, flat walk that starts at the southern end of Anderson Road. The track follows the fence line above Middle Beach, and then continues around a large land slip, through the palm forest, and out to The Clear Place.

A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.

Another option is to take a stroll along Lagoon Road. A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.

NORTHERN WALKS

This is an easy, flat walk that starts at the southern end of Anderson Road. The track follows the fence line above Middle Beach, and then continues around a large land slip, through the palm forest, and out to The Clear Place.

A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.

Another option is to take a stroll along Lagoon Road. A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.

Another option is to take a stroll along Lagoon Road. A short diversion just before The Clear Place gives excellent 360 degree views. Return can be either by the same track, or at the Dawson Point Ridge junction take the track to Milabat and continue down Lagoon Road.